

CALL FOR WEB DESIGNERS

Virginia Tech's New River Journal of Digital Writing and Art seeks talented web designers interested in the convergence of literature, the internet, and the graphic arts. Designers will work with one of several literary artists to construct a groundbreaking form of web-based literature called NEW MEDIA WRITING.

EXPLORE A NEW CREATIVE OUTLET

New media writing brings literary works to the web, a place of limitless possibilities. The design of these works may be grounded in typography, digital art, or Flash, but they MUST DEMAND READER INTERACTION. For more information about new media writing and examples, visit <http://www.cddc.vt.edu/journals/newriver/> or email newriverjournal@gmail.com.
